LOG CABIN SUCCESS.

What ails the young men? Robert Garrett's father left him a fortune of twenty millions. He was from childhood reared in luxury; he received a splendid education with an especial training into a thorough knowledge of railroad management and was expected to succeed his father as a rail-road king.

Within three years after the responsibilities which his father's death threw upon him were assumed, he is reported a broken down man, with mind and health permanently shattered.

A Doctor's Bill Saved.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., June 28, 1888.

The Swift Specie Co., Atlanta, Ga. Gentlemen—In the fall of 1887 a case of blood poison developed on me. It was extremely bad, and the glands about my neck became fearfully enlarged. A friend who had read great benefit from your medicine induced me to try S. S. S. Before the first bottle was gone the swelling went down and I began to improve. In less than two months I was entirely well. My skin is perfectly clear now, and my blood absolutely pure. I am absolutely certain that Swift's Specific not only cured me, but at the same time saved me a big doctor's bill. I shall always cheerfully recommend your medicine whenever an opportunity offers. Gratefully yours,

There are many accidents and diseases which affect Stoic and cause serious inconvenience and loss to the farmer in his work, which may be quickly remedied by the use of Dr. J. H. McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. Their sons were reared in the lap of luxury and developed into intellectual pugnacity.

The great men of our country have not as a rule, come from the elegant mansions of the cities, but from the Log Cabins of the rural districts. Simple ways of living, freedom from dissipation and enterprising pleasures, simple remedies for disease, effective and which leave no poison in the system, develop brawny, brainy men, who compel the world to recognize their strength and power.

The wholesome, old-fashioned Log Cabin remedies are the safest and surest for family use. Our grandmothers knew how to prepare the teas and syrups of roots, herbs and balsams which drive disease out of the body by natural methods and leave man after ill effects. The most potent of these old-time remedies were, after long and searching investigation, secured by H. H. Warner of safe cure fame, and are now put out for the "healing of the nations" in the Warner's Log Cabin remedies.

Regulate the regulator with Warner's Log Cabin sarsaparilla and with pure blood, giving health, strength, mental and bodily vigor, you may hope to cope successfully with the most gigantic financial problems of the age, without wrecking health and manhood.

Prudence! Prudence!

In medicina, as in all else, prudence is the best teacher. If you chance to cast it to the winds, every nostrum finds its patrons, the medical empirics of every false school have their gulls. Every change in the gamut of humors is rung successfully—for a time at least—the notes being furnished by the shrill voices of the quacks. The many advertised instances of the day stand Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, in its third decade of popularity, approved and recommended by physicians, endorsed by the press of many lands, sought and prized by invalids everywhere, and an unexampled specific for chronic indigestion, liver complaint and constipation, checks the growth of rheumatism and neuralgia, is a peerless invigorant and useful diuretic. Nervous people benefit by it.
